PUD waits for sewer main approval

MOKENA — A petition for construction of a sewer main out 191st Street to the Normal Plumbing Co., located about a block north of La Porte Road, west of U.S. 45, has been received by the village board and referred to the board of local improvements.

The petition was signed by Vincent and Geraldine Page, of the Normal Plumbing Co., and William and Elizabeth Weber. The Pages have plans for other buildings on their property, but cannot proceed with them until the present facilities are serviced by a sewer. The Webers are embarked on a planned unit development, and the 191st Street sewer will be a necessity.

Under the present agreement with the village board the Webers can hook the first 60 units built to the main on Revere Road. Any more units must be connected to a main to be built on 191st Street.

Cost of this main must be met by the property owners benefited. Other property owners along 191st Street can tap on this main through payment of a share of the cost and the tap-on fee set by the village.

Filing of the petition presents the board with a problem. Village engineer George Barber reported to the trustees that he received a letter from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, (HUD), dated Aug. 9 relative to requests for grants for three projects, a sewer and water system for Brightwood, a storm sewer system for the village of Mokena, and sewer and water main extension at 191st Street.

It was the first communication from HUD since last January or February so Barber telephoned the agency's office at Chicago to see if he could get any additional information. He was informed, he said, that by dropping two of the projects there would be a better chance of getting one approved.

At that time, Barber said, he was ready to recommend dropping the storm sewer and the 191st Street sewer-water proposals and seeking a grant to help meet the cost of the water and sewer system for Brightwood. Now a petition for a special assessment for a 191st Street sewer has come up.

There was some discussion and it was finally decided to concentrate on the Brightwood case, and the need to enlarge the sewage treatment plant.

The polishing pond is large enough to serve the community for a number of years, but the state will demand enlargement of the plant after Brightwood and the first 60 dwelling units at the Weber development are hooked into the present system.

Trustee Chester Ebert, chairman of the water and sewer committee, made two motions which were passed unanimously. The first was to process an application for a HUD grant for enlargement of the treatment plant. The second was to process an application for a grant for the proposed sewer and water system for Brightwood.

Brightwood is a subdivision on the southwest edge of the village which was annexed a couple of years ago. At the time the village agreed to provide the area with sewer and water, to be installed at the expense of the property owners in the subdivision.

At the time the Owens Land Trust developers were talking about a vast building program which included a sewage treatment plant on Hickory Creek, not far from Brightwood. The village arranged to hook the proposed Brightwood sewer to this treatment plant. Connecting a Brightwood sewer with the proposed Owens Land Trust treatment plant would cost less than if the connection were made with the present plant north on Wolf Rd., according to engineers.

The line to Hickory Creek would run by gravity while to put the sewage in the plant on Wolf Road would require a lift station, and a force main from Brightwood north beyond Francis Road to a point on 116th Avenue where gravity would take over.

At that time according to village officials, labor and material prices were lower and the figure given people at that time, as they recall, was around $2,200 a lot. The estimate now is placed at approximately $3,600 a lot.

Present plans for Brightwood call for oversized mains because the sewer would connect with a system that is being built for Pheasant Ridge, a subdivision between 116th and 115th avenues, around 195th street.

By building the system larger than needed for the immediate needs of Brightwood residents, village officials explained, there will be residents along the route who will tap-on.

Such people would pay a tap-on fee as well as the same cost per foot as decided upon for Brightwood, Mayor Will Tuttle said. The money used to rebate the cost would be borne by the Brightwood users.

That apparently is the only way the village has of helping to trim the cost, because it would not realize enough on what it could get by levying a public benefit tax to be of any practical use. On the other hand if the sewers are not large enough to take on more users, officials said, there could be no additional tap-ons to provide funds to help reduce Brightwood's costs.

But with the door maybe opening to an HUD grant the village would then be in the position to ask the court to set a sum for the village to pay in public benefits when the assessment is spread, Barker said.

It is estimated that the HUD grant could run to between $130,000 and $140,000. The amount set against the village then would be the amount of the prospective grant.

The estimate of the cost of the sewer and water system at Brightwood has been given at around $450,000. If the HUD grant was $130,000 that would leave something like $320,000 for the residents to pay.

Fall Festival starts Saturday

FRANKFORT — Three days of fun will begin at Frankfort Saturday, Sept. 2, when the annual Fall Festival gets underway.

The annual sauerkraut and weiner dinner, sponsored by the Frankfort Lions Club will be held Saturday at the Veteran Memorial Building, beginning at 4 p.m.

At 10 a.m. Sunday there will be a union church service in the Frankfort School gymnasium. Sunday afternoon the annual parade will be held, beginning at 1:30. Those in charge report the parade will be a big one with floats, bands and marchers.

The women of St. Peter's United Church of Christ will serve dinners Sunday and Monday, at the church, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m., featuring barbecued chicken and hot potato salad.

The men of the Frankfort United Methodist Church will operate a food booth on the west side of Oak Street, north of Kansas, for the three days of the festival. The women of that church will sell bakery goods, homemade jellies, fancy work and the like alongside the concession operated by the men.

On the east side of Oak Street, north of Kansas, will be the beer garden, with a German band of course. Closeby the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce will man a booth specializing in serving sweetcorn, and on east, down to the end of the block, will be carnival rides.

Along Kansas Street will be dozens of art exhibits, and antiques. There also will be exhibits on the new village parking lot at Nebraska and Hickory streets, including a flea market, and ancient steam engines.

There is to be dance for teens Saturday night on Ash Street, between Kansas and Nebraska streets, and on Sunday night the space will be turned over to adults.

An additional feature of the festival this year will be a horsedrawn hayrack, to take visitors on a cruise about the village. Long ago Frankfort elected to retain its own image instead of attempting to compete with the "mod," and its charm has brought thousands of visitors to the fall festival. A large attendance is expected again this year, according to Robert Dehn, Rittenhouse and Embree lumber manager, who is publicity chairman of the event. Harold Slocum is general chairman.

Parks gear for all-year projects

MOKENA — At its regular meeting Monday night in the village hall the Mokena Park district commissioners agreed to sponsor a recreational program that ultimately is expected to develop into a year round project.

Charles Swanberg, president of the park board, appointed three members, Art Omland, Mrs. Christine Evans and Jordan Manzano, to meet with members of the Youth Commission, and Harold Scheidt, of the Moraine Valley Community College faculty, Wednesday, Sept. 6, to work out details. It is the hope that the program will be in operation by Oct. 1.

Members of the Youth Commission on the committee are, John Weber, Nancy Osborne, Ethel Fee, David Downs, Peggy Jones and Ethel Stewart.

Scheidt is coordinator of the physical education and recreation program at Moraine Valley College.

Scheidt said that in the recreation courses taught at the college before a student is given an associate degree, they must serve an internship to get practical experience by directing an actual recreation program.

"It is like student teaching taken by Mary School would be available and Downs said that Superintendent James Ennis, of the Mokena grade schools, was in favor of such a program. A favorable response has been received from Superintendent Aldo Franti, of Arbury Hills School.

When the committee of park board members and the Youth Commission meet next Wednesday it is hoped that arrangements for the use of school gyms will be complete, Scheidt will set up the programs. Some will be conducted after school for the grade schoolers.

The programs for teens and adults will be in the evenings. Each session will be supervised by an intern.

Scheidt explained that the interns work on a semester basis. The first prospective teachers," Scheidt said, "and I make frequent visits to supervise and aid them. There is no charge for this service. The only expense is for equipment, and brochures that give information of the program, its scope and schedules. You coordinate the facilities and we coordinate what goes on in those facilities."

Scheidt said that in Mokena's case the maximum expense for equipment and brochures would not exceed $400. He said that the program would be geared to fit all age groups.

The park board authorized the expenditure of $400 for equipment and left open the possible charge that use of school facilities might entail. Weber reported that the "Cow Palace" of St.

group will be in charge until Dec. 20. The second phase will begin about Jan. 7 and run until June. The park district always has had a summer program and it is possible that it could be made a part of new arrangement. During the winter the interns work without compensation.

The Youth Commission has been in touch with Scheidt for some time but he explained that the school's intern program was worked only through official bodies, such as the park district, or a village board, or a school district, in the role of sponsor.

Those eligible to participate in the program must be residents of the Mokena Park District.

WILLIAM

Sworn in

NEW LENOX — William E. Brown took the oath of office as a member of the New Lenox village board recently. He was sworn in by Trustee James Warning, serving as interim mayor. Brown resides at 2812 Gifford Place, Cherry Hill Estates. He replaces Earl W. Schroeder, trustee who resigned effective Aug. 1.

Yes, street chips should look that way

MOKENA — Persico Paving Co., of Joliet has practically completed the repair and rehabilitation of Mokena streets under an $488 contract with the village board.

In case anyone has been wondering—yes, those chips are supposed to look that way, black and shiny. Chips—in this sense—are small stones, chipped off big hunks of stone and are not to be confused with the wood or potato variety.

In road repairing—of the blacktop or macadam type—it has been customary to spread a coat of bituminous material, and cover it with chips and traffic presses the stuff down into the surface and eventually there is your street, nice and level again.

There are usually complaints by some people residing along such improvements that there is too much dust raised during the period required to get the chips molded and street molded, unless a rain chance to fall following the application of chips.

So this time the village board decided to use coated chips. The bits of stone are given a bituminous bath so after they are spread on a street in proper fashion there is nothing more to do than let traffic take its course.

The coated chip eliminates the dust problem so council members get no complaints on that score. However, some people have complained that the coated chips are a bit tacky, and are drawn up by tolling tires and make a clatter on fenders.

Mokena schools staff sees several changes

MOKENA — At its recent meeting the Mokena grade school board approved several changes in the teaching staff as recommended by Superintendent James Ennis.

Mrs. Linda King was hired to teach junior high language arts and Karen Kabat to teach primary music. Mrs. King is from Tinley Park and a graduate of St. Xavier College. This is her first year of teaching. Miss Kabat is from Arbury Hills and has been teaching at New Lenox.

Mrs. Juda Frahm was hired to serve as a teacher's aide at Carpenter Street School.

The board accepted the resignations of Richard Fleek, a junior high language arts teacher, and Mrs. Donna Shryock, a lunchroom server.

Victor Nigro was offered a position as custodian at Willowcrest School.

The board named one of its members, Jens Notestein, as legislation chairman to represent the board with the Illinois Association of School Boards.

The board approved adoption of a resolution from Martin Mackay, director of the Lincoln-Way Area Special Education Cooperative calling for approval of certification of need and application for a special education building grant and other levy requirements, according to House Bill 1666, that allows a $1,000 grant for each professional person in special education.

Klausung Tree Service has been hired to cut down a dead tree on the Carpenter Street School grounds.

The bid of Sears Roebuck on carpeting two rooms at Willowcrest Primary was accepted by the board, as the lowest submitted. The firm will install an Herculan Alefin fiber carpet in the two rooms for $1,444.30. Another bid by Sears for a 12 by 17 foot carpet to be used in a first grade classroom as Carpenter Street School also was accepted. The price of this is $115.

The annual audit of the Mokena schools has been completed by Grumley, Dicke, Thornton and Clark, Joliet. A representative of the auditing firm will attend the Sept 13 meeting of the board to review the report.

Three children were officially transferred to the Joliet school district for the 1972-73 school year, on recommendation of Martin Mackay. The three youngsters have low incidence handicaps and the Lincoln-Way Area Cooperative has no classes for these children at present.

Gene Morrall, principal of Willowcrest School, presented the 6-7-8 grade schedule to the board for review.

It was noted that teachers schedules were full and room utilization is 100 per cent.

According to the pre-registration of pupils it was reported that classes in the 5th and 8th grades were just over 30, with the balance under that figure. All maintenance and housekeeping details were reported complete at all three schools.

At the next meeting, 7:30 p.m. Sept. 13, the board will make a tour of the buildings.

The request of teachers aides for five days of sick leave during the school year was turned down by the board. The aides are on an hourly basis and only employees under contract are granted sick leave.

Water biggest stumbling block to annexation

MOKENA — Questions from the Arbury Hills Civic Association to the Mokena village board relating to annexation of that development were answered by Mayor Will Tuttle at the recent council meeting.

The great stumbling block to such a union, the mayor said, is that a private utility company sells the water and sewer service to the householders of Arbury Hills.

"You can't have a private utility company operating in the same municipality that provides such facilities. The village would have to buy out the company now supplying you with the services, and that could be an expensive undertaking, if not almost impossible," the mayor said.

The mayor's comment came on the question: "What will the village do to equalize our water rates to yours?"

Among the questions read off by Edward Levenson, president of the Arbury Hills Civic Association were:

Whether the Mokena police department would have sufficient manpower to give Arbury Hills proper protection; whether there is a dog catcher, and does the village have sufficient manpower and equipment to give Arbury Hills street maintenance?

Tuttle answered all affirmatively. As to snow removal and how soon would the crew get to Arbury Hills he said that arterial streets had first priority and residential areas would be taken care of as soon as possible.

As to street lights the mayor explained that the village paid the rental on the poles and lights to Commonwealth Edison and also paid the cost of the electricity. As to the building code, Tuttle said, the village had a good one and that it is enforced.

The Arbury Hills residents also wanted to know when someone from that area would be eligible to run for the village board — assuming, of course, that Arbury Hills is annexed.

Trustee Robert Teske said that he had looked this question up and according to the statutes it would be a year before a residents there could run for office.

Arbury Hills also wanted to know if the village would call a special election to give that area representation on the village council. Tuttle told them no special election would be held.

"It is possible" the mayor added, "that there could be a change in the form of government for the village. If Arbury Hills should be taken into the village and a couple of planned unit developments now under consideration should materialize there would be a considerable addition to the population and the area so increased that we would have to consider another form of government — perhaps aldermanic so the different sections would be sure of representation," Tuttle said.

The petition of annexation was held Monday in circuit court at Joliet. If granted, and all indications were that it would be, the Mokena village board will be notified. The board could act to annex Arbury Hills, or a petition could be filed with the board by Arbury Hills residents whether the citizens of Mokena wish to enlarge the village boundaries in such fashion. Atty. Gen. Zenon F. Myszkowski is representing the Arbury Hills residents.

Mary wins TV role

ORLAND PARK — Actress-artist Mary Bourke, recently graduated from Carl Sandburg High School has won a role in the WMAQ-TV special "New Performers"—Chicagoland "72", but is enrolled as an Art Major in the fall at St. Xavier's college.

Quoting from an interview for the Miss Bourke, who lives with her parents in Palos Heights, was recommended to the "New Performers", by her faculty sponsor, Brian VandenBerg, and had her final try-out near the end of the school semester.

The final cast was selected after contestants performed in singing and dramatic interpretations. The program will showcase college and high school talent on a television special to be aired this fall. A total of 26 young people are cast in the hour long show.

South Cook 4-H council names officers

TINLEY PARK — The South Cook County 4-H Council elected Park Forester Fritz Wildermuth, 332 Niagra St., president of the 1972-73 council at the group's first meeting of the year Monday evening at the Extension Service office here.

Other officers elected included Rodney Knieriem, Route 2, Tinley Park, vice president; and Mrs. Valerie Milazzo, 3729 Park Ave., Steger, secretary-treasurer.

The 4-H Council, which assists the Suburban Cook County Cooperative Extension Service with the 4-H program in South Cook County, discussed the Extension Service budget; 4-H project workbook judging, agreeing to meet Sept. 7 and 8 to complete the judging; established a window judging team to be chaired by Henry Veldhuizen of Thornton for 4-H Week, Oct. 1-7; appointed Tom Shannon, a member of the council to head the committee for the Public Speaking contest; and conducted lengthy discussion on the 4-H fair.

Members of the new council attending Monday's meeting included Nellie Mae Bussema, Chicago Heights; Leo G. Piper, Tinley Park; Tom Shannon, Palos Heights; Emily Stelter, Tinley Park; Henry Veldhuizen, Thornton; Mrs. Albert Weber, Palos Heights; and the officers previously listed.

Members of the Extension Service attending were Mrs. Ruth Hay, assistant Extension Adviser; Mrs. Liz Kindle, 4-H program assistant; Mrs. Audrey Hallgren, 4-H program assistant; Carl Mees, Cook County Extension Director; and William Whiteside, senior Extension Adviser.

Mud . . .

WESTHAVEN — Residents of Westhaven in the 168th Street block of Highview found themselves all wet as a result of water back up from last Friday's storm.

Approximately nine or ten homes were involved in sewage overflow into the homes. Sewage backed up through the toilets and floor drains, and in some cases in the laundry tubs.

Bill Rimmke, a superintendent of Tekton Builders said that for the amount of rain that fell Friday, it was "too much water for the sewers to handle." "The ground had enough rain and reached its saturation point," Rimmke added.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaFaire of 16823 Highview Avenue had their two children Laura, 9, and Sean, 5, sleeping in the basement. Water flooded the area and approximately 14-20 feet was reported in the basement, at 11:00 p.m.

Rimmke said he, "volunteered to help the people", and added that Tekton would give the residents paint to redo their peeling walls, or do any carpentry needed.

According to Rimmke, Citizens Utilities will be putting up a high pressure lines in the near future in order to prevent future flooding.

And more mud

WESTHAVEN — If you want to see a mudslide, residents of the 162nd block of Haven Avenue will be happy to oblige.

At the present, over 25 families have stuck home-made signs in the mud in front of their homes protesting the refusal of the village to allow construction of sidewalks and driveways, until streets are in.

In a block statement to residents of Westhaven, the block informed villagers that "Mayor Curtis Whitaker ordered Tekton at the Saturday Board meeting to put in the street before the lots are completed."

The east side of 162nd Street has sidewalks, driveways, and graded lots. The west side of the street, however does not have the walks, driveways or graded lots. The street itself is a combination of deep holes and large bumps, frequently filling with water when it rains.

"Tekton Corp., the builder of the homes has admitted to an elevation deviation to the original plans on nine of the homes as submitted to the village. However, they also say there was no one available in the village to contact to seek approval for the change," according to the block statement.

Boards have been placed on the mud at present to serve as sidewalks, and homeowners must park their cars out in the street.

In order to get the village's side of what the problem is, the HERALD contacted Dennis Ward, Westhaven Building Commissioner, early Monday in order to get a statement from him in regards to the construction problem.

Ward told the reporter that he had been "frequently misquoted over the phone" and would answer questions in writing.

The reporter attempted to contact Ward to secure the answers, by phoning Ward at home and work periodically through noon Tuesday Aug. 29, without success.

For Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaFaire, living in Westhaven means never a dull moment. Last Friday, due to the large amount of rainfall, the LaFaire home along with nine other homes found themselves all wet. The sewage system backed up . . . right into the homes.

New bank coming to Orland?

ORLAND PARK — Terrance Kunes, owner of the Terry Lincoln Mercury Inc. confirmed a Springfield report that an application for a permit to organize the Plaza State Bank in Orland Park is in the "working process."

The bank will be located at 153rd Street and La Grange Road in Orland Park. The application has been filed with H. Robert Bartell Jr., state commissioner of banks and trusts.

The bank's capitalization of $1,000,000 would consist of $400,000 in capital stock, $200,000 reserve for operating expense and $400,000 for surplus

There will be 100,000 shares of stock with a par value of $4 each.

Terrance Kunes of Palos Park, Gary Van Brock and James P. Reedy, both of Oak Brook, Herbert V. Huskey of Oak Lawn and Thomas V. Connolly of Oak Forest will be the organizers of the bank.

Mokena project Sept. 5 topic

MOKENA — The Mokena village board is to meet with developers of a planned unit project Sept. 5 to discuss plans the developers have in mind for the 319-acre farm of Michael and Patrick Doogan at U.S. 30 and Wolf Road.

The Doogan farm lies along the west side of Wolf Road, with the largest portion to the north but it extends south to the Penn-Central tracks.

Sidney Bloom and Tom Phillips, who also have an interest in the Ownes Land Trust, which is adjacent to the Doogan property to the west, the developers, said the plans call for 1,776 dwelling units.

Bloom told the Mokena village board at its regular meeting last week it is planned to build single family, condominium-four-plexes, garden apartments, rising two and a half stories, townhouses and possibly some commercial buildings.

Bloom said that 23 per cent of the area would be left as open space and the overall density would be five and half units per acre.

In response to a question by the board

Bloom estimated the project would be seven or eight years in the building.

The land, of course would have to be annexed. The village has annexed Wolf Road to U.S. 30 and the tract lies along Wolf Road, and it is bounded by the Ownes tract on the west side, which is already in the village.

The developers displayed a number of maps, showing how they plan to use the tract but the village board members asked for and were promised copies.

They know the area around Mokena is to build up but the trustees indicated their only concern was whether the land was put to its best use.

Cool cats need to roam

By Glenn Logan

The cats of Frankfort — the four-legged kind, that is — still retain the right set forth in our Declaration of Independence . . . "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

At its meeting last week the village board decided against attempting to reduce cats to the status of a licensed chattel, deprived of their chance to roam free here and there, or around and about, as they fancy, a right cats have held to be inviolable through the centuries.

There are, of course, some cats that are homebodies, — all are somebodies — and rarely stray from the confines of their own grounds. But that is of their own choice. They are not staying home because someone told them to.

In the long ago cats made it big in some religions and were venerated and held in high esteem by participants. Whether this so went to the heads of the cats so treated that it became a trait or characteristic passed through generations, this poor toiler can't tell you, but if you notice cats are rather disdainful of humans.

One of the few cats I ever knew who appeared to have a genuine, and strong attachment to people was a big black and white tom, named Bert, who was a neighbor of mine. There were several children in Bert's family and he would romp with them, and follow them about like a dog. When they came home from school Bert would be waiting and run halfway up the block to greet them.

He would join their games at times. If along and I remember one Halloween of opening the door to trick-or-treaters, and there on the steps in a row were four costumed figures with Bert smack in the middle.

Then there was a large gray and white tom we had on the farm in Arkansas. He was always underfoot so his name, Nuisance, was fitting. He was an outgoing cat and I don't believe he ever met a stranger in his life. When anyone stopped in nuisance was always there to greet him with an approach that one expected to see him put out his paw and say, "Welcome, my name's Nuisance and I'm glad you stopped by."

That he was a personality boy was evident by the fact that on occasion when visiting neighbors they would inquire about Nuisance and for a farmer to think about a cat as an individual is quite unusual. Certainly the cat must be.

He was never at a loss on how to deal with people or dogs but mocking birds were a trial. He would come picking his way across the backyard with grace and high dignity, when from above would come two or three mockers, flying formation, and zoom! they would come diving down, leveling off just above his back.

This buzzing he ignored but on the next pass the birds would attack, nipping his back with their beaks. That would be the payoff. Nuisance would take off at high speed, dashing to the nearest person for protection, or if no one was in the yard, would go pelting to the barn.

Unless a municipality is operating under home rule it cannot adopt an ordinance licensing or restricting cats because there is no state law on the subject to give it full legal force. The state almost had an anti-cat law once. It was passed by both houses of the general assembly but it was vetoed by the late Governor Adlai Stevenson. In his remarks that accompanied the veto the governor pointed out that when something like that got started there was no telling where it would end. There could be laws to regulate canaries, parakeets, rabbits, and other pets.

Besides, cats were independent creatures, would pay no attention to such a statute, and enforcement would be practically impossible.

New Lenox adopted an ordinance once that was intended to prevent cats from running at large and to license same. It may still be on the books, for all I know, but by mutual agreement cats and officialdom have forgotten about. There was one time when police tried to capture a cat that had elected to get a bit of shut-eye in a garage, without the owner's consent. The cat got away but the officers didn't get away from the cat.

Frankfort trustees were toying with the idea of licensing felines and requiring owners to keep them confined, but village Attorney August J. Santoro pointed out the pitfalls in such an ordinance without state statute to back it up so the council dropped the matter.

This is just as well. Any cat that read such a measure would be amused. "These humans!" they would say, and be off to attend to the things that cats are interested in.

Does Bayh bill really ban 'Saturday night specials'?

(Editor's Note: This opinion column is open to our readers, giving them an opportunity to submit articles on subjects of their selection. We ask only that the writer contact this office prior to submitting material in order that the article can be scheduled for publication.)

By Michael J. Flynn

The "Hand Gun Control Act of 1972" has passed the United States Senate and has been sent to the House for a final vote.

The bill introduced by Senator Birch Bayh (D. of Ind.) is purported to control only hand guns known as "Saturday night specials". These are cheaply made pistols usually made of parts manufactured in other countries and imported into the U.S., assembled here to avoid controls that already exist that would prohibit their entry if they were assembled outside the country.

The elimination of the "Saturday night specials" from the sport hand gun market would be a great advantage. They have no value except to be used in illegal actions.

The Bayh Bill, S2507, will control the manufacture of these guns as well as any other hand gun the Secretary of the Treasury feels should not be sold in America.

The four major provisions of the Bayh Bill are as follows;

1. No federal firearms' licensee (manufacturer-importer, dealer or collector) may sell or deliver any handgun model which has not been approved by the Secretary of the Treasury.

2. The Secretary shall not approve for sale or delivery by a licensee any handgun model unless representative samples of such handgun model have been tested and evaluated and found to meet the criteria set forth in the bill.

(The emphasis in the criteria relates to overall size, barrel length, frame construction and weight. Virtually without regard to quality, safety or price.)

3. No pistol shall be approved for sale or delivery if it has an overall length less than four inches; no revolver shall be approved if it has a barrel less than three inches and an overall frame length of less than 4½ inches.

4. No person may reduce the length of the barrel or the overall length of a handgun previously approved by the Secretary if, as a result of such modification, the handgun no longer meets the standards for approval.

The Bayh Bill does not outlaw the "Saturday night special" exclusively, it will outlaw all handguns that do not meet the precise specifications of the bill and as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Contrary to what Senator Bayh has reported in the past, the bill he has authored and introduced does not outlaw hand guns which are simply unsafe or unsuitable for lawful purposes. The bill minimizes the question of safety and the major criteria are size and barrel length.

In addition, the Bayh Bill would require the U.S. government to spend millions of dollars of taxpayers' money to purchase those lawful guns presently owned by private individuals so that they would be able to comply with the law and dispose of them.

The Bayh Bill also would prohibit the further manufacture of many lawful handguns which have considerable value for home and personal protection as well as sport applications.

The supporters of the imposition of controls on hand guns have consistently complained that the "organized lobby" of the National Rifle Association is bringing undue pressure on legislators to stop them from voting in favor of gun controls.

These supporters have used television, radio and newspapers to emotionally get their message across to the public. The NRA and many honest gun enthusiasts have a right to exercise what ever influence they may have to stop unfair gun controls.

The NRA has never said it was in favor of the "Saturday night special". It has said that it opposes any legislation, such as the Bayh Bill, which is so broad in nature as to outlaw more than a specific type of weapon.

Senator Bayh has practiced his own type of deception on the public by making consistent reference to the "Saturday night special" in his efforts to have his bill passed. His deception is by omission. His bill will outlaw the handgun he emphasizes, as well as many others. Such tactics are usually reserved for forums other than the United States Senate.

The bill must now be approved in the House of Representatives before it reaches the President and becomes law. The members of the house would do well to look deeply into the provisions of the Bayh Bill before they approve it. The bill is an infringement on the constitutional rights of citizens and should not be passed as it is presently written.

How about a belt?

TINLEY PARK — A special award was presented June 28 to Bob Butala who is a partner at Lee & Bob's "66" Service 16701 Oak Park.

The award, a plaque bearing two rare silver dollars, two Kennedy half-dollars, and a specially minted commemorative coin set in an automotive engine design, was presented for exceptional customer service by a representative of The Gates Rubber Company.

The Denver-based rubber company sponsors a nation-wide contest (now in its 40th year) to reward service station personnel who provide exceptional customer service. A fleet of "Gates Mystery Cars" regularly travels across the country stopping at service stations. Each "Mystery Car" has a worn fan belt. Award plaques are presented to station personnel who notice the defective belt and offer to replace it.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

We write this letter with mixed emotions. First, we extend the heartiest of best wishes to Tom Houlihan, a reporter for the Times Herald who has recently been promoted to the editor's job of the Lockport Herald. Certainly, your newspaper has made a fine choice and Tom Houlihan certainly will be a credit to your newspaper in Lockport.

On the other hand, the citizens of Oak Forest will lose the journalistic finesse of a fine young man. Tom Houlihan has done an excellent job in reporting news, special interest stories and all other journalistic features which were certainly beneficial to the citizens of our community. Tom Houlihan has also been one of the leading crusaders in the campaign to finish the Cicero Avenue project and the citizens of Oak Forest appreciate his personal efforts and the efforts of the Times Herald.

We wish Tom all the success and happiness in his promotion and certainly the City of Lockport and its citizens will benefit upon his arrival.

Re-your article on the sewer and water project for Brightwood.

First, let us put some of the things said in the context of which they were spoken.

Granted the mayor did say if we didn't want the sewer and water they wouldn't put it in, which he immediately rescinded when Mr. Sangmeister reminded him of the commitments he had made (to whom?). What about all the commitments he made to us two years ago?

The village went along with the Owen Trust project because they were going to build the plant and then turn it over to the village.

No mention of saving any money for residents of Brightwood was ever made. As I recall, they told us the cost would be the same as if going down Wolf Road to the treatment plant.

I find it very difficult to believe that a home owner could sue the village for something that belongs to the village and not the homeowner. The sewer mains belong to the village don't they?

HUD, upon being contacted said they do not discriminate and give to depressed areas only.

If the village has no funds, how can they purchase a building for $15,000.00? Concerning the remark made by Mayor Tuttle: If you can't afford to live in this town, "move out," (which was completely omitted from the article,) shows his attitude toward the people in the village.

Is the mayor setting himself up as a judge and jury as to whom can afford to live in Mokena. As a resident of Brightwood for 13 years we deeply resent being told to move out.

NATALIE MOOI
Mokena

(Editor's Note: A playback of a tape taken of the Mokena Board of trustees' meeting the week following the Board of Local Improvements session dealing with the Brightwood sewer and water case, indicated that Mayor Will Tuttle did not make the remark, "If you can't afford to live in this town, move out," nor did any member of the board make the statement.)

I want to publicly thank Little Bill's Bakery, Oak Forest, for their cooperation in avoiding an embarrassing situation.

When a wedding cake, baked by the friend of a fellow employee, was dropped and demolished while being delivered, we turned to Little Bill's for help. With less than two hours to do so, they made up a beautiful wedding cake and delivered it in plenty of time. They are "tops."

In order for the story of Girl Scouting to reach the public, it is essential for us to have the support of local newspapers.

Literally thousands of girls and adults in the south suburban area are registered members of the Girl Scouts, and we know that they and their families enjoy reading about their own activities as well as those of other troops. The information also informs the general public about scouting, and helps them become interested in our program.

The number of clippings we have collected during the past year is proof of the backing we've had. We appreciate the generous coverage you have given to local Girl Scout troops and to the South Cook County Council news, and look forward to continued support as the new Scouting year begins this fall.

Every hour fire destroys or damages 67 American homes. Every hour and twenty minutes, one person — most frequently a child or elderly person — dies in a dwelling fire.

These figures, from National Fire Protection Association research, are the measure of our failure to heed fire hazards, and the measurable result of our failure to correct them.

There is no mystery about the causes of most home fires. A carelessly discarded cigarette if left to smolder in an overstuffed chair, a portable oil heater is refilled while burning, electrical circuits are overloaded and overfused, uncleared rubbish becomes a breeding place for fire.

The cause of most fire deaths in homes is no mystery. Lives are lost when the simple rules of safety from fire are violated — smoking in bed, leaving children alone in the house, neglecting to teach youngsters that matches and lighters are not playthings.

A critical failure is being unprepared for fire emergencies in the home — no family planning of escape routes, no periodic family fire drill to make sure that both adults and children can act quickly and without panic.

Fire represents failure. Now is the time to recognize this fact, and to act — to remove hazards, to reform habits.

Your actions and attitude now can make you and your family safe from the tragic consequences of fire in the months ahead.

Township dilemma: ineffective, needed

(Editor's Note: The following is a guest editorial from the Arlington Heights HERALD. What faces voters in Palatine and Maine Townships will be on the ballots in area townships during future elections. The results of the elections in those northwest suburban townships will be followed with interest by township officials.)

It is a dying form of government, but as yet there is nothing which can step in and effectively and efficiently replace it.

It is township government, and voters in Palatine and Maine Twp. in November will be asked to decide whether to abolish it.

The scheme to abolish this often-ineffective form of government was hatched by the League of Women Voters in Palatine, Maine and Niles Townships.

After researching the topic — the 1970 constitution allows for township government's dissolution — the League began a spirited campaign to gain enough petition signatures, to indeed, put it on the ballot.

It's on the ballot in Palatine township — and three groups in Maine Township have been feverishly collecting signatures in order to meet yesterday's deadline.

The idea of doing away with township government is, on the surface, an excellent idea. Township government is a hold-over from more rural times and there's a critical need to replace it with something more effective.

However, rejecting it by a referendum will accomplish nothing more than leaving unincorporated areas without basic services which township government has supplied.

Granted, County Board president George W. Dunne has vowed that the county would supply the same basic services which the township has supplied in the past — if the referendum is passed this fall.

And the township tax would be eliminated — a progressive step for any tax payer.

However, there is no guarantee that any mechanism at all will be available after the November referendum. There is no procedure established for continuance of general assistance, of road repair or of the Bridge, which is a youth services bureau which serves Palatine Twp.

Voters may believe that passage of the referendum will eliminate a variety of useless and little-known services — but they'll be the first to complain when it becomes clear there's no procedure to transfer those services to another agency.

A far better approach to ending township government is to wait for what has happened in Evanston, where the city and township boundaries coincide completely.

If this occurred in Palatine, for example, an orderly procedure of transferring basic services to village and city government could be followed, while assuring that basic services would be continued.

The League's move, although well-intentioned, threatens to eliminate needed services while creating a gap for which no replacement has yet been clearly designated.

Books on sale

FRANKFORT — The Frankfort Public Library will conduct a sale of its used books as a part of the annual Frankfort Fall Festival.

Hundreds of books, children's and adults', will be available, according to Arlene Santoro, librarian. The sale is to begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 2, and end at 3 p.m.

Children's books will sell for 10 cents each. The volumes for adults will be sold at 25 cents each, except for a 1906 set of the Encyclopedia Britannica. It is complete and in good condition, it was reported, and will go to the first collector who pays $25 cash.

Any books left unsold Saturday will be put on sale for 10 cents each on Sunday and Monday. The book sale will be held at the library, which is at the northeast corner of Nebraska and Ash streets. Mrs. Santoro also announced that new hours for the library

The hours for Tuesdays will be from 1 to 6 p.m. Wednesdays, 1 to 8 p.m. Thursdays, 1 to 6 p.m. Fridays, 1 to 8 p.m. and Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 3

High school soph wins all

PRESTWICK — Miss Nancy Lopez returned to her high school sophomore class in Roswell, N.M. this week with a record of golfing accomplishments never before achieved by a 15-year-old.

Friday, her championship in the 46th Annual Junior Invitation Open of the Women's Western Golf Association held at Prestwick Country Club, near Frankfort, was the climax of a highly successful summer for the pretty tanned teenager.

Although Nancy and her championship flight competitor Miss Brenda Goldsmith, a high school senior from San Antonio, Tex. had difficulty with putting in the final nine holes. They had a truly championship round.

Not until the final put on the final hole was the title decided with Nancy taking a one-up victory in the final match round.

Miss Lopez joins an elite quintet of girls who have won both the Junior Women's USGA Amateur and the Junior Women's Western Amateur in the same year. Others were Marlena Bauer Hagge in 1949, Patricia Lesser Harbottle in 1950, Mary Lou Daniel in 1962 and Jan Ferraris in 1963.

Nancy came to Prestwick the first of last week having just finished as runner-up in the Women's Western Amateur in Kansas City. She is the youngest to finish that high in that annual competition.

At Prestwick, except for the final nine-holes in Friday's championship flight, Nancy "owned" the course, as Mrs. Alex Welsh, Women's Western Golf Association, so aptly emphasized it. Nancy was the tournament medalist with a 76, she collected a three-under par 33 for a course record and garnered the Women's Western Marion Miley trophy while at Prestwick.

However, in the championship flight Friday Texan Brenda Goldsmith pushed Nancy to the final hole before bowing. Brenda had Nancy three up beginning the back nine.

The two teenagers were even going into the final 18th hole, but Brenda put her drive off the fairway and her second shot failed to clear the rough while Nancy made the green in two.

In the championship consolation Janice Kimpel of Urbana won over Valerie White of Vancouver, B.C., Canada 3-2.

Diane Miller of Waukegan was 7-5 winner over Marie Allard of Montreal, Que., Canada in the first flight of Friday's final round of match play and in the first flight consolation Rebecca Bradley of St. Louis needed 21 holes to edge Diane Bohl of Urbana.

Store poisons in proper area

SOUTHWEST — Homeowners can keep unused pesticides and herbicides for next year's use, if sealed and stored properly, according to Richard Hentschel, summer assistant horticulture, Cooperative Extension Service.

Store liquid pesticides in protected areas to prevent freezing or precipitation of ingredients. Homeowners should choose storage areas that will also protect containers from damage. Store pesticides in their original containers. The container provides identification, usage directions, rate recommendations, safety precautions, and emergency information.

Hentschel also advises that all unidentifiable materials that may serve as safety hazards and sources of misuse, be destroyed, and all chemicals stored safely where children and pets will not have access to them.

Sandy Flynn, Chairman of the WWGA (Prestwick) Housing Committee, wishes to extend her appreciation to the following persons who opened their homes to some of the contestants in the golf tournament held last week: Carolyn Meyers, Pat Hendricks, Joyce Carlson, F. Wenstrom, Irene Galassi, Barbara Tauber, Ann Olivieri, Mrs. Guido Piumi, Janel Klare, Elbie Lysaker, Ilsa Vogelmann, Jane Denniston, Elanore Palance, Pat Varner, Joan Holzapfel, Marge Damm and Irene Kogut.

All of the girls commented on the outstanding hospitality of their hosts and the beauty of their homes. From what we hear, nearly all the families went out of their way to provide each of the girls with a home away from home.

Darwin Kal, Hazel Crest, and his son, won the father and son tournament last Sunday with the low gross score. Don Martin, Aberdeen Road, and his son, and George Maslogites, Park Forest, and his son, tied for net honors. Will there be a play-off?

Happy Birthday to Gil Lysaker. We hear that he and his wife had quite a party for a number of neighbors last Sunday in their home on Golf Club Lane. I can attest to the fact that the cake was good, someone brought a piece home.

Prestwick is getting bigger every year, or should I say, day. We would like to welcome some of our newest neighbors to our ever growing community; Mr. and Mrs. Roxy Ruggeri moved into D'Evereux about six weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hrdlicka moved into D'Evereux about one week ago, Dr. George Yocum also moved into D'Evereux recently and Mrs. Lillian Wolff formerly of Flossmoor just moved into Piex Carre as did Mr. and Mrs. Reamo Perilo who were formerly residents of Homewood.

The Jim Merriam crew is certainly selling those condominiums these days.

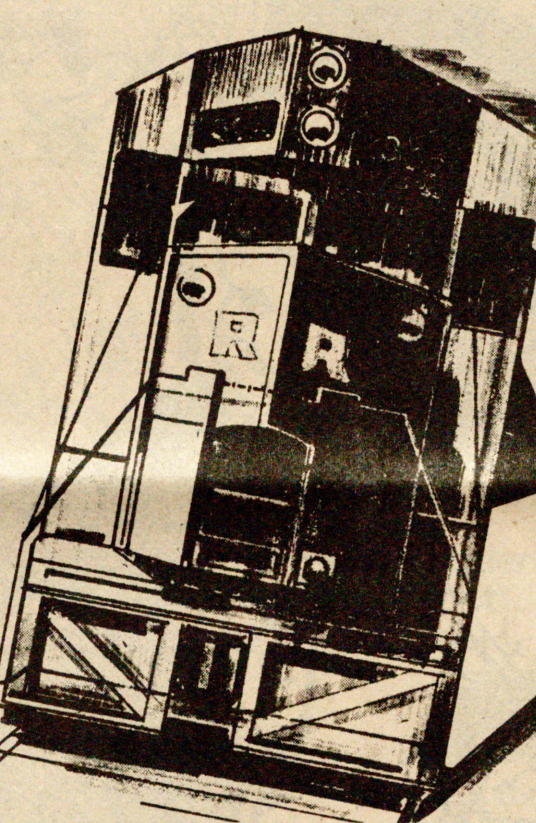

The last twilight two ball mixed event is scheduled for this Friday night. It should be interesting competition for the prize money of $230.00 which will go via a percentage formulae to the first, second, third and fourth place teams. Teams three and four and competing for first and second place and teams seven and ten are competing for third and fourth place. Good luck to all.

Movie inspired her to teach handicapped

By Mary Straub

TINLEY PARK — Why does a teacher decide to make a career of teaching the handicapped child? Barbara Urbanski of Crestwood is in her seventh year of teaching, and is now an itinerant teacher of the visually handicapped. "When I was in teachers' college I saw a film about a blind girl, 'The Journey of Su Lin,' and, really, ever since I have been compelled to do what I'm doing now. I love it."

Approximately 165 teachers, aides, psychologists and therapists attended the Southwest Cook County Cooperative for Special Education's Pre-school Institute Friday morning at Sandridge school, 16600 66th Ave., in Tinley Park. Margaret Hale, supervisor of the mentally handicapped, briefed special educational teachers on the new year's procedure according to the 1972 Teachers' Handbook, and Zenon Sykuta, superintendent of Country Club Hills District 160, as one of the co-op founders, spoke on "Then and Now."

He said, "In the beginning, our task as teachers and administrators was not so much what to do for handicapped children, but how to identify them. We were often confronted with angry, aggressive parents who demanded that their child receive a good education."

"Eventually, 14 superintendents met — probably out of self-defense — to pool their resources and investigate the needs and solutions. That was in 1958, and the co-op grew from there. We now have 60,000 students out of which we take our load."

Sykuta noted the negative connotations of "special" and said that the past few years have lessened the separation between "special" and "regular" education. Special ed may provide special programs suited for individual handicaps, but the requirements of the staff members remains the same as for "regular" areas of education.

Colored slides of the 1972 Olympics held at at Tinley Park High School in May were shown, and teachers' oh's and ah's could be heard as they recognized their students in wheel-chair races, swimming events, track contests, broad-jumping and other sports events of the day. Frequently a toothy smile or intent expression on a small, innocent face evoked the staff's appreciation.

Donna Wolf, 25-year-old teacher from Hyde Park, will be at the training center in Country Club Hills this year. She has felt deeply about children in need since she was in her first and second elementary grades with two mongoloid children. "I love children and especially the TMH students I'm now working with."

Budget topic for directors

SOUTHWEST — Representatives from 17 school districts were present at the Board of Directors meeting of the Southwest Cook County Cooperative for Special Education on Thursday morning.

Superintendent William Fisher, District 230, discussed his format of a restructured budget called for by districts complaining that special ed charges among the various schools are not balanced.

Co-op Director Benjamin Braun then reviewed the budget for 1971-72 and the projected 1972-73 budget. One of the changes to be made in the new year's budget is for a separate Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund (IMRF), so the districts can determine their expenses.

New buses are needed now, and Fisher recommended that hereafter the board have a forecast of equipment to be chased. He also commented that too much is being spent on transportation, and an analysis of transportation costs is to be made.

The Board of Directors will meet to vote on the adoption of the 1972-73 budget and to make final decisions on Sept. 21.

A former director of the training center, Jake DeLange teaches at Tinley Park High School and has been with the co-op for five years. Prior to that he taught at Elim Christian School for 14 years. Why did he change? "I went into the co-op because it seemed to be a challenge. I enjoy it tremendously now."

Frank Fabino, District 146 psychologist, said that he would like to see the role of the school psychologist change from a tester to a consultant who would work with parents, school and teachers. "Parent resistance to such consultations is often caused by them not feeling okay about their children's handicap."

In Transactional Analysis (TA), Fabino feels that many problems can be eased by interaction between interested and involved persons.

And, with the co-op since its inception, Ellen Tubutis startled this reporter by answering, "Of course I like being with the co-op! That's a silly question!"

Homestead act savings ready

COOK COUNTY — Assessor P.J. Cullerton last week said he would notify 100,000 senior citizens of his approval of their applications for the 1972 Homestead Exemption.

The Homestead Exemption allows a $1,500 reduction on the equalized valuation for persons over 65 who own and reside in their home. A tax savings of more than $115 can be realized on tax bills payable in 1973.

"We will notify by mail in October all senior citizens who have qualified for this much needed tax relief," Cullerton said.

"It will not be necessary for property owners to contact my office since we will be mailing them notification of approval of their applications," Cullerton added.

Cullerton said more than 85,000 applications had already been approved by his staff in the Homestead Exemption Department of the assessor's office.

In order to qualify for this tax relief, citizens must meet certain requirements, which include completing an application for the Homestead Exemption, swearing to residence in a home as of Jan. 1, 1972. Applicants must obtain a photostatic copy of the warranty deed or other proof of ownership as of Jan. 1, 1972. A photostatic copy of a medicare card, birth certificate or other proof of age indicating applicants are 65 as of Jan. 1, 1972, must also be obtained.

Forms are available at the Cook County Assessor's office, 118 N. Clark St. Property owners may call 321-6151 for assistance.

Hello World!

Little Company of Mary Hospital

Craig Alan Cassata is the new baby in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cassata, 8609 W. 144th St., Orland Park. A brother for Bret, four years old, Craig weighed 6 pounds 9 ounces, and was 19½ inches long. He was born Tuesday, Aug. 15, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grabill and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cassata, all of Chicago, are the grandparents. Craig's daddy is a police officer for the Orland Park Police Department.

Ingalls Memorial Hospital

Jacqueline Diane Austell, weighing 7 pounds 12 ounces, was born Aug. 11, to Mr. and Mrs. Mary Austell Jr., Green Garden Township, Frankfort. Jacqueline is a granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dreesen, Harvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Bular, Dolton. She was born a month earlier than planned and was welcomed home by two brothers, Robert, 11, and William, 9.

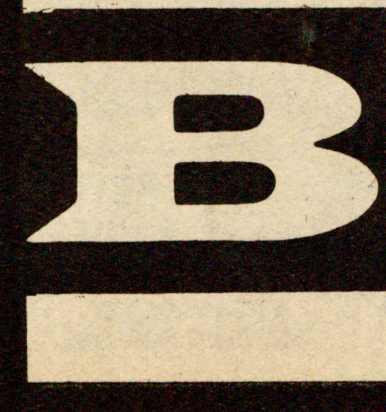

A boy was added to the family of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens, Orland Park, on Aug. 12.

IT PAYS TO KEEP UP TO DATE!

Many things change: stocks, income property value, status of members of a family, tax and estate laws. It pays, therefore, for you to keep up to date where your Will is concerned. This institution does not draw Wills, but our Trust Officers will be glad to consult with you and your attorney on matters pertaining to the planning and management of your estate. Give serious thought to naming this institution as Executor of your estate. We have long, specialized experience in such work.

Santa stops for picnic

By Robin Bailey
ORLAND PARK — Look! Up in the sky! What is that? Members of the Orland Park Lions Club were probably asking the same thing when Santa Claus did his thing by coming to the Lions Picnic by helicopter Sunday.

Jeane Melkrone arrived in his bearded gear to give goodies to the kids attending the event. He told all the children that he had to arrive by helicopter because his reindeer wouldn't fly without snow.

Doug Lavery, told the HERALD that there was "standing room only" for the 3,000 people that attended. Lavery said that the planning started at 6 a.m. on Sunday, and food and beverages were served from 1 to 6:30 p.m. There were 1,200 chickens roasted, and thirty-five men in charge of the food and drink stands.

More tickets were sold than expected, and a "good time was had by all," according to Lavery.

The Show-Teens performed in an "All American" style for the picnic playing songs from musicals. The group consisted of teen-agers. A local rock group also played for the 3,000 people.

Also provided were games for the children, free train rides, and prizes.

Proceeds went for benefiting the blind.

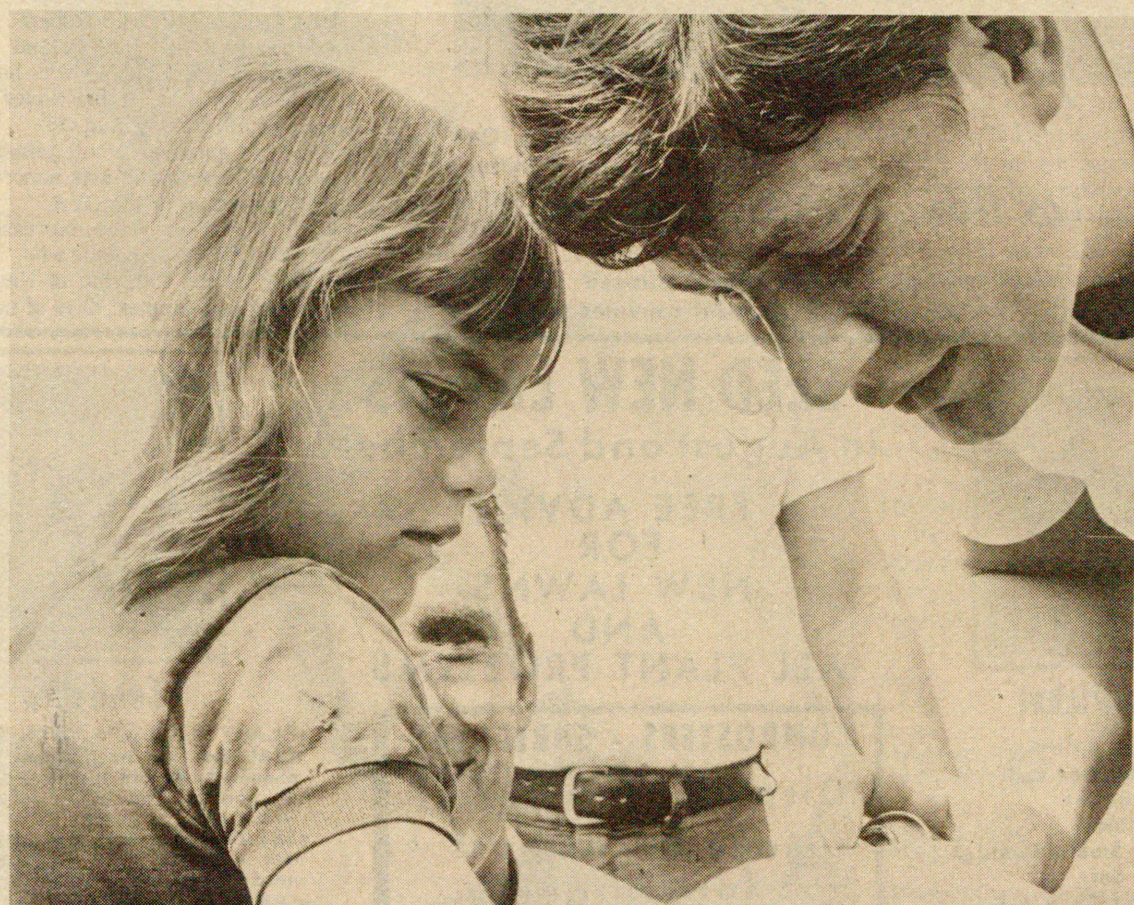

Hey Mister. Aren't you hot in that red suit?

And he came out of the sky like this.

Hmmmm, slurp.

Time out for first aid.

It's all in the stars

SOUTHWEST — Understanding the psychological needs of your friends and loved ones can bring added happiness into your life, as well as theirs.

Over the years, astrologers have learned that what makes "me happy," may not be what "makes you happy."

According to astrologers, the key to understanding different personalities is in the stars.

Aries (March 21-April 19) continually needs and seeks out challenges. They are happiest competing in sports or games.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) enjoys creature comforts and the good life. No 18 cent hamburgers for this person; it's strictly your best food and wine served in your finest surroundings.

Gemini (May 21-June 21) is happiest during a lively intellectual discussion. Start off with a good book or movie followed by a small get-together.

Cancer (June 22-July 21) enjoys the warm atmosphere of a close family get-together. They like to show warm affection, and make ideal owners for cuddly pets.

Leo (July 22-Aug. 21) is susceptible to flattery. Be subtle, but lay it on thick. And be sure to go first class when Leo is around — only the finest restaurants will do.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sept. 22) has a need to be helpful. Give them plenty of things to do. The more they do for you, the more they like you.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) likes to have his peace and quiet. Don't rock the boat here — just keep everything smooth sailing while in the presence of Libra.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) tends to be jealous. Give them your undivided attention, and let them know you like them.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) is a sociable animal. Lots of friends for an informal outing is his cup of tea. People under this sign like to jump in the car and go for a ride in the country.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 20) makes a fetish of neatness. Have everything done in advance so that a Capricorn will have nothing to do but have a little enjoyment.

Aquarius (Jan. 21-Feb. 19) has a touch of wonderlust. This free spirit likes to try new things and new places.

Pisces (Feb. 20-March 20) can't stand to be alone. They need to be around lots of people, especially those who make good listeners.

MR. AND MRS. FRANK CORRIGAN

Marriage unites two

RANSOM — Carol Bettenhausen and Frank Corrigan were united in marriage, Aug. 5, at St. Patrick's Church, Ransom. Carol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bettenhausen, is a former Tinley Park resident. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Corrigan, Ransom.

Maid of honor was Elaine Rechkimer and best man was Gerald Palaschak. Bridesmaids were, Joyce Burrough, Lynne Doogan, Mary Lynn Brust and Jeannie Ball. Bonnie Henke was junior bridesmaid and Jennifer Francisco, flower girl.

The groom's attendants were Kenneth Brust, Steven Brust, Bobbe Bettenhausen, Randy Sheedy, Bruce Bettenhausen and Stephen Burroughs.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for about 450 guests from Tinley Park, Orland Park, Mokena, Frankfort, New Jersey, California, Michigan and South Dakota.

After a honeymoon in California the couple will be at home west of Ransom.

Dance to the music

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest American Days Adult Dance will be held Saturday, Sept. 16, 8 p.m., at St. Damian's Hall.

Dance Chairman Bill Perry has reported that the committee has made a special effort to bring the American Days Dance back into Oak Forest, and appreciated Monsignor O'Day's cooperation in making the hall available.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Benny Sharp Orchestra. Food and refreshments will be available throughout the evening. Bob Carlson, who is assisting Perry in arranging the dance, said that the decorations would center on the theme of Oak Forest's 25th anniversary.

The highlight of the evening will be a professional floor show featuring Bobby Sargent, night club and television comedian and entertainer. The Ivy Five, popular song stylists, will also perform.

Perry said, "Those who attended last year's American Day Dance were most enthusiastic about the floor show, so we've arranged to have the same type of outstanding professional show for this year's dance."

Tickets are available at the Oak Forest City Hall office, from the City Trustees and American Day Committee members.

Store begins sewing classes

SOUTHWEST — Teen age girls, 12-19 years old, interested in sewing, can get a head start in Montgomery Ward's 4th Annual Sewing Bonanza. The contest, Aug. 28-Oct. 14, is broken down into two age groups, 12-15 years and 16-19 years.

OYA honors ump

ORLAND PARK — Robert Ryan, Vice-President of the Orland Park Youth Association (OYA) was honored at a special dinner at the Silver Lake Country Club Friday Aug. 25.

Ryan has umpired 95 ball games over a period of years, and was honored for his participation in the OYA.

After the dinner, Ryan expressed his gratitude to all those people who, "made the night of the 25th one of the most surprising and happiest days of my life."

Dear Melvin Van Peebles, You probably don't remember me, but we were in the same graduating class at Thornton Township High School.

No — I can't start a letter like that. The approach is too ordinary.

Dear Melvin Van Peebles, I'll have to dance now...

That won't do either.

Who is Melvin Van Peebles and why would I want to write him the perfect letter?

Melvin Van Peebles and I graduated from Thornton in the class of 1949. Our class produced such illustrious people as Lester Sons, news editor of a community newspaper chain; Suzanne Soenksen, who became Miss Indiana in about 1951 and in so doing got to sit next to Mickey Rooney at a banquet; and Hank Currier, — and he probably had to be a character or an athlete to attract any attention at Thornton in those days.

He was from Phoenix, Illinois, where most of the black kids at Thornton lived. He wore horned rimmed glasses, and interestingly enough in the days of processed hair for black men, his hair was a close-cropped natural.

Looking back in my high school year book, I found he was a member of the Spanish Club and the Boys Club and a group called the Hi-C Club, which had a Christian orientation.

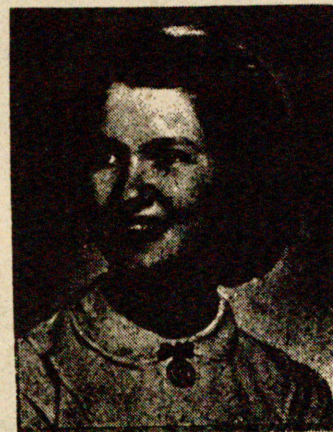

He was also a member of the French Club. This must have been a boost to his career, because he has since published five novels in French.

My name was Mary Plant then. I was from Flossmoor and I am white. Twenty-three years ago I wouldn't have dreamed of dancing with a fellow who was black, even if the alternative was spending the evening in the girl's washroom.

When I was high school age I dreamed of being in show business — obviously I'm not. I write for a weekly newspaper, care for my family, and occasionally clean our home. Little did I know when I refused that dance that I may have made a crucial mistake. At least that's what my wildest fantasies tell me now.

In addition to the improbability of getting my name on a marquee I have also been forced to take some stock of the change in my attitudes over the years.

My racial feelings are light years away from where I was in 1949. I'm sure his are too. He no longer has to be a character with squeaky shoes to make a difference.

Mary Goodwin

our class president who now manages a Lumber Company in Oak Forest.

I went on to become the wife of David Goodwin and the mother of four lovely children.

Melvin went on to become a movie director, the star of the movie he directed which was called "Sweet, Sweetback Baadasssss Song," the author of five books, the director of a currently successful show on Broadway, "Don't Play Us Cheap," and one that just closed, "Ain't Supposed to Die a Natural Death," and who knows what else.

After graduation from high school he went to West Virginia State College and then to Ohio Wesleyan, where he graduated in 1953 with a B.A. in English literature. He was married for a time and that marriage produced two children. He has lived in San Francisco and New York and all over Europe.

I have lived in Flossmoor and Park Forest.

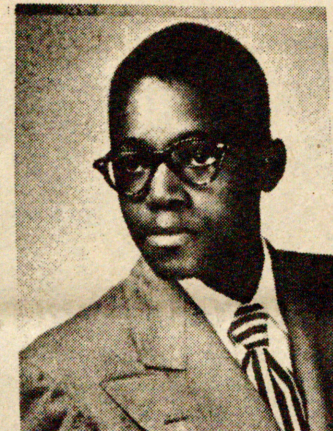

Needless to say, our paths haven't crossed since we left high school 23 years ago.

Melvin Van Peebles, who didn't use the Van in his name 23 years ago, asked me to dance one night at a "Purple X" dance at school. Purple X dances were events held after football games where almost everyone went without dates. We all took our chances. Many times girls ended up dancing with each other.

I was not about to dance with him. He was definitely one of the characters of our class. He wore squeaky orange shoes and worked at being different. When we were taking tests at school he used to get up and walk to the pencil sharpener — squeaking all the way there and back. The purpose was to amuse all of us and it worked.

To avoid him at the dance, I spent the evening in the girls' washroom with my trusted friend, Jenny.

You see, Melvin Van Peebles, is black

Melvin "Van" Peebles

He writes and acts and directs and surely makes a lot of money. In the terms of our society he is an important person. He is written about in magazine with national circulations and appears on television talk shows. (We all know an appearance on the Johnny Carson show is the ultimate in success.)

My hiding in the washroom days are over. Now, I say no to someone I don't want to dance with.

For the most part, I guess I have put away my dreams of show biz. I suppose I'll stick to reporting and writing and raising a family and occasionally cleaning the house.

But on those days we all have when nothing seems to go right, I like to have my private dream.

Chances are Melvin Van Peebles would have found out what a basically poor dancer I was anyway and would have gone to my friend, Jenny.

I'll have to write her and tell her how close she almost came to being in the movies.

Collage winner

Leaves 'self' out of art

By Jean Wille

Winning first place (Collage) in an art exhibit is a 'far cry' from getting an A in geography for map drawing. Mrs. Paul R. (Ethelyn) Schreiber has achieved both credits.

Mrs. Schreiber recently composed a monetary note collage for the Bremen Bank and Trust Co., Tinley Park. The art work consists of three State Bank of Illinois $5 notes backed on gold paper.

The petite wife of Attorney Schreiber has studied art in Europe at the Academie Notre Dame, Des Champs, under Maurice Ducaire; in Florida, with Belga Schwartzman; and in Chicago, with Elvie Ten Hoor. Although she has only been painting in acrylics for about five years, she won the Best of Show at the Elliot Museum, Stuart, Florida, and four awards at the Southern Art Festival, Fort Pierce.

Her art career began shortly after she founded the Orland Park Recording For The Blind. About 30 volunteers for the Unit began a small shop to earn funds and Mrs. Schreiber donated Christmas wreaths. She continued to experiment in artistic endeavors and found that her interest and talent rested in more involved works such as montages, collages and acrylics. The Schreibers' 'wooded' home in Palos Park, is a fascinating spot for even the novice art fan. The living room walls are practically hidden by small and majestic originals in oils and acrylics. On a north wall of the room hangs a white-white montage of nature sparked by pieces of a broken mirror.

Her second floor studio is sufficient to cause a beginning student of the arts complete exhilaration. In addition to the numerous innovative creations taking shape on canvas, there is a black antique easel that could easily be used for display on its own merit.

Mrs. Schreiber said that, "I try to keep 'myself' out of my paintings. I think it keeps the work free."

"First I select my palette (colors) then I put the paint on canvas and let the emerging forms lead into the finished painting," she explained when I asked about her manner.

She also mentioned "turning abstract works upside down," a method employed by many abstract artists. However, Mrs. Schreiber does not consider art work as "work." "It is great therapy," she added.

Mrs. Schreiber has also conceived an original method of "smoke work." Unfortunately, due to an allergy, she has not been able to continue with the process involving smoke from a kerosene lamp, candles and aluminum sheeting.

Adorable little monoprims are also eye-catching in this comfortable home. A monoprime is done by painting on glass and then transferring to paper, using oils, or acrylics.

She stretches her own canvases and truly enjoys expressionistic art as opposed to what she termed calendar art—"where everything is perfect."

Mr. and Mrs. Schreiber are the parents of two sons, Paul and Tom, both attorneys. Mr. Schreiber's law office is decorated with many of his wife's original works, a fact to make any husband proud.

Anniversary set for Sunday

OAK FOREST — Calvary Baptist Church, 149th St. and Laramie Ave. will observe its 11th Anniversary on Sunday, Sept. 10.

Bormets mark 50 great years

LOCKPORT — Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Bormet, 143rd St. and West St. will celebrate their 50th Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, Sept. 3.

There will be an open house at the Mokena VFW from 7-10 p.m. All relatives and friends are invited.

Hosts and hostesses for the open house will be the couples ten children: Vernon Bormet, Mokena; Edwin Bormet, Tinley Park; Herman Bormet, Braidwood; Glen Bormet, Lockport; Allen Bormet, Lockport; Melvin Bormet, Lockport; Mrs. Evelyn Wegner, Tinley Park; Mrs. Jean Thompson, La Grange; Mrs. Betty Ann Thomas, Justice Park, and Mrs. Joan Ayers, Lockport.

The senior Mr. and Mrs. Bormet have 27 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Lions club receives check

PALOS HEIGHTS — The Palos Lions Club recently presented a $2500 check to Palos Community Hospital for the purchase of ophthalmology equipment.

The club, consisting of about 80 members, is a fund raising organization which meets twice a month, September through June, at the Silver Lake Country Club. Although sight conservation is its prime concern, the club has also organized a junior bowling league, a teen club and has given financial assistance to the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and helped in cancer and heart fund raising drives.

Funds for sight conservation are raised through the annual candy day sale. Other fund raising projects planned for the coming year include a pancake brunch to be given on Nov. 4, at Carl Sandburg High School, a wheel barrel raffle in December, Las Vegas night on Feb. 24, 1973, at Silver Lake Country Club, a Drury Lane Theatre Party in the spring and a fall and spring antique show given at the Orland Park Chateau.

Lind's crash victims

TINLEY PARK — A family of three was injured Aug. 18, in an accident at 160th and Oak Park Avenue. Injured and taken to South Suburban Hospital were Kenneth Lind, 29, of 7609 W. 163rd St., who suffered back pains, Donna Lind, 25, who suffered a bruised elbow, Jeffery Lind, 4, was treated for a scratch on the chin.

Luis Ventura, of Lockport, was treated for rib and head injuries at South Suburban Hospital.

According to police the car driven by Lind had slowed at 161st Street and Oak Park Avenue, when it was struck in the rear by a car driven by Ventura, Ventura was charged with driving too fast for conditions, and following too closely.

During the Sunday School hour, 9:45 a.m., the church will observe its 11th Anniversary by seeking to reach a goal of 1100.

In the morning service, 11 a.m., Pastor Schroeder will be preaching on "Eleven Years of Miracles."

Following the morning service the entire church family will be going to Yankee Woods for the annual church-wide homecoming outing.

In the evening service at 6 p.m., there will be testimonies and songs telling of God's blessing, plus a message from God's Word by Pastor Schroeder.

Calvary Baptist Church was started on September 10, 1961, at the Herb McPherson residence, 15929 Lore Ave., Oak Forest. Since this humble beginning, with approximately ten families, the church has grown to become one of Illinois' fastest growing Sunday Schools.

Sunday School attendance for the year is currently averaging about 700.

— ADVERTISEMENT — Discover How to Look As Young As You Live

Often a woman who feels and acts young is most likely to look older than her true age. In her lively life, pursuing active, exciting outside interests, she may overlook her own skin care.

If you are one of these women, you probably yearn to ease away skin dryness and help restore smoothness and suppleness, so aging lines and wrinkles can become less noticeable. Now discover the lovely secret shared by younger-looking women around the world, the secret of Oil of Olay moisturizing lotion.

This unique blend, created by beauty researchers, quickly brings you a radiant, more youthful look. Soothe on Oil of Olay morning and night. The fluid penetrates the surface layer of the skin, bringing tropical oils, emollients and the moisture needed for a youthful, glowing complexion. The natural ingredients set up a barrier to help retain your skin's own needed fluids, an added benefit as the years pass.

Discover how young you can look. With Oil of Olay® twice a day. You will find Oil of Olay (and a younger look) at your drugstore.

QUIT HORSEING AROUND!

Making the most on your money takes horse sense—not horse play! It takes the ability to accurately judge an investment's security and returns... before you make the investment, not afterward.

The prospect of earning 6% per annum on a $10,000, 2-year savings certificate, and 5 3/4% on a $5000, 1-year certificate is a good deal—even if risk were involved. But at Lake Shore Savings we assure you high returns on your investment without the necessity of crossing your fingers and hoping for a winner. And we remove the element of chance: your funds are insured to $20,000 by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. You don't have to saddle yourself with a weak investment.

But if you're looking for excitement... if you enjoy the feeling of your blood pressure rising and your stomach gnawing, well... that's a horse of a different color!

Dreams of castles and puppy dog tails

TINLEY PARK — "It's a special bed for a very special little boy," said Madelene Vendola.

Madelene was speaking of her son, Jason's hand made "spanish castle" bed. Joe Vendola, Jason's father, made the creative piece of furniture with hand hewn wood, driftstone (chipped by hand) and mortar. A heavy chain set into the mortar creates the moat-drawbridge-fortress effect.

The bed weighs about 400 pounds and is actually eight different sections bolted together. Joe spent about two weeks of his evening hours constructing the bed. He estimates the cost somewhere near $95 dollars, minus his time. However, he said it could probably be made for about $75 if less expensive lumber were used.

There are three large drawers set into the side of the bedstead which has been varnished to a deep lustre.

When the Vendolas decided to create a "special bed for a special boy," their first thoughts leaned toward a spanish galleon. However, when Madelene saw a small set of bookends modeled after a castle, the "castle-bed" idea was conceived. Joe sketched drawings of castles from which he worked until completion. Besides two and a half year old Jason, the Vendolas are parents to seven month old Sabrina, "Seme Lou."

Jason will enter St. Luke's Presbyterian Hospital, Oct. 5, where he will undergo heart surgery for transposition of the great vessels. Jason was born with this defect which causes low oxygen in the heart blood supply. The operation he will undergo, the Mustard Procedure, was perfected by Dr. William T. Mustard in Toronto, Canada, 1965.

Stephen Combs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Combs, Aurora, is a pediatric heart patient who successfully survived the Mustard Procedure in 1970. Jason will have the same team of doctors as Stephen had: Dr. Milton Weinberg, heart surgeon; Dr. H. Gunther Bucheleres, pediatric cardiologist; and Dr. Barbara Santucci. The research for the new heart surgery was possible through contributions to the Heart Association.

Bring pets back home

SOUTHWEST — When you close your summer home for the year this fall, don't leave Rover to rove. In other words, don't leave any pets cultivated over the summer months to fend for themselves.

The Animal Welfare League, 6224 S. Wabash Ave., is asking that any vacationers who have befriended dogs and cats continue to provide for the animals. If these animals are left behind they will soon starve or suffer untold hardships until they die.

Do not attempt to wish these unwanted pets onto farmers as most of them already have all the dogs and cats they can properly care for. Abandoning any animal is a violation of the Illinois humane laws and is punishable by a fine up to $500.

If you have any unwanted or lost dogs, cats or other pets you are unable to care for, bring them to the League's refuge, 6224 S. Wabash Ave., where they will be cared for in a humane manner. Animals are received any time of the day or night. Animal Welfare League ambulances make pick-ups in Chicago and

Got chair, need cards, will play

MOKENA — There are now 60 members in the Mokena Senior Citizens Club, according to Mrs. William Plecki, head of the group, and when they play cards or chat each will be assured of a chair, thanks to the Mokena park board.

At its meeting last Monday night the board authorized the purchase of 60 folding chairs from the Prairie State School Equipment Co., Chicago Heights. The price is $4.50 per chair, or a total expenditure of $270.

The chairs will be the property of the park district, and will wear a stencil on their backs attesting to the fact, but the park board will loan them to the senior citizens. Card tables will be provided by Gene Gerardi, of the Frankfort Community Chapel, Mrs. Plecki said.

nearby communities. If we do not service your community our telephone operator will try to offer helpful suggestions in an effort to help you. For further information call 667-0088.

As most dogs have been constant pets of the children during vacation time, they will probably attempt to follow the children to school. League officials also caution mothers not to let the family dog follow the children to school as the dog may get into trouble on the school ground, or will be picked up for running at large in violation of local ordinances.

Garden club to enter show

MOKENA — the Mokena Garden Club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 8 for its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Schultz, South Brightway. Co-hostess will be Mrs. LaVern Hird and Mrs. Ada Hoogstra.

The program will be a members' workshop on horticulture and house plants in conjunction with their annual Flower Show on Nov. 4 and 5.

The club will be entering the Will County Flower Show "Happiness Is. . ." on Sept. 9 and 10 at Ludwig School, Lockport, Ill.

Rayson fund raiser

TINLEY PARK — Several hundred supporters turned out to honor Representative Leland H. Rayson (D-Tinley Pk.) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Johnson, Orchard Hill Farm, 168th and Kilpatrick, Tinley Park.

The event was the first of a series of informal fund raisers to be held throughout the district by the Citizens to Re-elect Leland H. Rayson Committee.

Representative Rayson, in his remarks to the group stated, "only by personal contact on a people to people basis, can a candidate for local office such as state representative, reach the grass roots".

Marriage aids male survival

Is marriage more beneficial to married women, single women, married men, or single men?

A recent government survey lists ten of the better-known neurotic symptoms: heart palpitations, dizziness, headaches, fainting, perspiring or trembling hands, nightmares, insomnia, apathy and nervousness. The survey showed that the average housewife is in nearly all cases the number one victim compared to the working woman.

According to Dr. Jessie Bernard, professor emeritus of Sociology at Penn State University, all research evidence shows that the mental health of married men is far better than that of single men. Married men show fewer symptoms of psychological distress. They are only half as likely to commit suicide, which means that marriage is of enormous benefit in terms of sheer male survival.

Dr. Bernard also states that married women suffer far more anxiety, unhappiness and mental stress than single women who are relatively stable and sane.

Why should marriage bring emotional benefits to husbands and mental damage to wives? Dr. Bernard believes that the husband can find healing refuge from the demands of the business world in a tranquil marriage setting, but this same anachronistic structure of marriage and being a housewife makes many women sick. For them, the tedium and uselessness of housewifery may lead directly to depression and mental illness.

Automobile insurance that stands squarely on its record: lower cost, broader coverage or both.

Our candidate is thrifty. Even if your present insurance company has given you lower rates for a safe driving record, the Aetna All-Driver Plan should cost you less.

Our candidate is also broad-minded. If you've bashed in a fender or two in the past few years, you may still save with All-Driver over what others might charge.

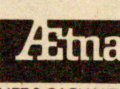

And if you've had real bad luck with your driving—maybe had trouble getting insurance at all—our candidate is tops. You should be able to qualify for All-Driver. Get the broad coverage you need along with the best renewal guarantee in the industry.

Put it all together and you'll see why Aetna's All-Driver Plan has been carrying the driver-vote in this district ever since it's been running.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER BY JIM HIRSCH

In less than a century, labor has made tremendous and almost unbelievable gains. . . . From a modest and initial purpose of better wages and strengthened job security, labor today finds itself tangled and perhaps trapped in a net of laws that cause people to ask, "How will it all end?"

A look at some of the common words seen and heard these days in labor matters shows how a new, up to date labor vocabulary requires intimate understanding of labor-management relations, public interest protection, labor courts, governmental intervention, compulsory arbitration, minimum wage, moonlighting, union dues check-off, apprenticeships, unemployment compensation, industrial compensation, fringe benefits, etc. etc. All these and others were unheard of words not too many years ago. Through the years, labor has acquired a good taste of "the good life". Even better days are optimistically and hopefully seen ahead. . . . But a disturbingly, nagging question remains — "How will it all end?" Or . . . more disturbingly . . . "WILL it all end?"

Nine studying plans for incinerator plant

By Mary Straub

SOUTHWEST — Nine southwest suburbs are giving serious thought to building an incinerator plant as a solution to the pressing problem of refuse disposal.

At an Aug. 23 meeting sponsored by Oak Lawn Mayor, Fred Dumke, the mayor stressed the necessity of immediate planning action by the local governments invited to participate in this co-operative venture. He said, "We're not pushing this idea for Oak Lawn's benefit. We realize the urgency of the garbage problem on the southwest side."

"In the event that we cannot agree to co-operate here tonight, I'm recommending that our community proceed with this program even if we must do it alone."

Mayor Walter Kerkstra of Worth was the first to speak in favor of the project. "The few legal and technical intricacies can be worked out," he said. Towns represented at this meeting were Oak Lawn, Burbank, Chicago Ridge, Evergreen Park, Hometown, Worth, Alsip, Bridgeview and Palos Hills, and the consensus was that this project was certainly worth further consideration.

Rock Gaetano, vice president of Radiant Incineration, manufacturers of burners has conducted a $5,000 feasibility study of this plan, and it will be made available to the local government study groups to be formed for this purpose.

Mel Noel, consulting engineer of the City of Chicago, brought up a major point. He said that 50 per cent of our fuel oil will have to be imported from the Middle East by 1980. This costly expense can be eliminated by burning our refuse in a Rotary Kilned Furnace, a type that has been in operation in Paris, France since 1954.

As in Paris, the incinerator gases can be used for heat or for steam-power, for this incinerator generates its own power, the excess of which is saleable. In addition, it doesn't drain the power source of the country, and at the same time it's an answer to the scarcity of landfills, according to Noel.

Where would such a burner be located? Noel answered, "We've been looking at 111th Street and Central Avenue, but any place where its power can be utilized would be good. Wherever the plant is situated, the community would benefit in dollars and cents because of its proximity."

The size of the proposed plant would depend on the population to be served. Projected figures for 1980 for the nine towns invited total 258,000. A 650 or 750-ton burner would be satisfactory and would cost about $6 million. Federal grants could possibly pay up to two-thirds of this.

Reclamation of some residue can be counted as income. Chicago has realized $169,000 from recycling ferrous metals. A 1,000-ton per day incinerator could net a yearly income of $250,000 or more. Generated steam will bring in $70 per hour.

The cost of serving the 1980 projected population is $6.25 per ton for a 600-ton plant. This includes overall construction to amortize and operate.

Mayor Dumke reminded those present that should they refuse to cooperate now, and decide to use the facility later, their expense will probably be higher. Furthermore, it may be impossible to join later because a smaller incinerator built now will not accommodate additional communities later.

Robert Oldland, Oak Lawn village manager, is co-ordinator of the proposal, and he hopes to have names from each community desiring to participate so an initial planning meeting can be arranged in two or three weeks.

Closely corresponding in time to this preliminary incinerator meeting was the withdrawal of Landfill Inc., petition to rezone an area in Palos township from residential to industrial for the purpose of operating a sanitary landfill.

Denied permit application by the Environmental Protection Agency, the petitioners have temporarily decided to halt this project which has agitated and enraged Palos residents since they first learned of it.

The elimination of this potential landfill site increases the urgency of finding an agreeable solution well before Southwest Cook County's existing landfills can no longer receive refuse—in less than 10 years, it is estimated.

145 offers individual course

OAK FOREST-TINLEY PARK — The Individually Guided Education program (IGE), a program that provides for individualizing instruction in elementary schools was approved by the school board in the Arbor Park District 145.

The program employs techniques of a non-graded nature and team teaching.

The aim of the program is to build more effective number skills and language skills through problem solving and learning situations according to Superintendent Wayne Krula.

Approval of redesignating Veteran's Day as Nov. 11 changed the day to a school holiday. Also approved by the board was to make Friday, Dec. 22 a holiday.

Recommendations concerning job descriptions for extra-curricular activities was discussed at the board meeting.

A tentative extra-curricular activity schedule was submitted to the board, and board member James Cook said ninety minutes was not sufficient time for boys to shape up for basketball.

A comment was made that having three ninety-minute sessions per week for the basketball program was in accordance with conference rules on practice sessions which would be enforced for every school.

Also approved was purchasing a school bus from Witte Chevrolet at a cost of $9,862. The bus will be paid for over a period of three years with interest at six and one-half per cent. The price would be subject to a probable four per cent increase. The price is based on the 1972 list price.

Dore praises dump fighters

SOUTHWEST — Fourth District Democratic candidate for Congress, C.F. (Bob) Dore hailed the victory of South Suburban homeowners and interested citizens groups in the zoning fight involving the 120 acres located on the northeast corner of Will-Cook Road and McCarthy Road in Palos.

When attorneys for the landfill developer withdrew their rezoning application this week the announced reason was "indefiniteness of new Environmental Protection Agency regulations governing sanitary landfills." The real reason, Dore said, "was an aroused citizenry unified in their opposition to this attack on their immediate environment."

Dore once again emphasized the urgency of massive governmental commitment to the protection of the nation's environment, and underscored his Republican opponent, Ed Derwinski, for his ZERO rating on environmental legislation.

Mobile information unit

The mobile unit of Cook County Board President George W. Dunne's office of Inquiry & Information will appear the week of September 5th through the 8th.

The unit, now in its third season of operation, is supplied with informational materials about various county functions and with forms in common demand. Members of President Dunne's office of Inquiry & Information will staff the unit and citizens may feel free to come to the mobile office without advance appointments to seek information pertaining to county functions and express their opinions.

Zoning board to hear 6 pleas

FRANKFORT — Six petitions for rezoning classification will be heard by the Frankfort Zoning Board of Appeals at its meeting the night of Sept. 20.

The petitioners are asking for reclassification of land now zoned R-1 (single family dwellings) to I-2 (industrial). The vacant property lies along the east side of Center Road, north of Frankfort airport.

The land is in what is known as Ludwig Industrial Park. When it was annexed recently it was taken into the village under R-1 classification, as required by law. It had industrial classification under the Will County zoning ordinance. Now the individual pieces of property are asking for similar classification under the village code. The Frankfort Airport is the owner of two pieces of land involved which it plans to use in its expansion program.

One piece is owned by Hans Bader, one by Dawn Plumbing, and one by Paul Brown.

The land is all vacant at present. Any building permits taken out, would be after rezoning.

Net gain

A net gain was recorded by these two happy young men during a recent Tinley Park District Tennis Tournament. Gary Lash teamed with Mike Maratea in the 13-years old and over doubles competition. Lash also took first in the 13-and over singles competition.

Two ready to tackle cross country ride

TINLEY PARK — "This is not an 'Easy Rider' gig by any means. It's no racing adventure." Jac Stafford told the HERALD Wednesday of his plans to travel with Lon Durham as rider number two in the 12,000 mile trip on All-Terrain three wheeler vehicles, in a tour that will cover the United States.

The two are going to make an effort to break the 3,000 mile record for the All-Terrain vehicle. They hope to leave Sept. 4th from Tinley Park.

Lon is responsible for everything on this trip, and has designed the safety suits which they are to wear. Raven Incorporated will send three uniforms each to Stafford and Durham, one an all-weather, one a winter suit, and one two-piece.

The engines are the Bruton LC440, three cylinders, two cycles, and water-cooled. These vehicles have no transmission, but will have a clutch. The vehicles are eight feet in length, four feet in width, and three feet in height. By this description, the All-Terrain Vehicle bears no resemblance to a motorcycle.

Lon, 18, and Jac, 26, hope to have a trailer which hitches to the back of the three-wheelers, to pack their gear in, donated by the Calafia Industries, Calif.

The following companies are involved in the furnishing the equipment for the trip: Champion Spark Plugs, Tri-Sport, Bell Topax, Bates Co. Setcom, Motorola, Steed Co., Brutanza, Austrian Ski, and Sports Haus.

Especially interesting is the equipment Setcom has installed in the Bell helmets the pair will wear. The head set is equipped with a microphone which is attached to the top of the helmet which takes vibrations and transfers them to the other driver.

Another addition is the burglar alarm system they are to have installed that will be set off with the slightest jolt. The loud, blaring horns will send the noisiest person flying.

On their journeys, Lon and Jac will be stopping at the National Tri-Sport dealers around the country.

Some of their sights will include Colorado, Washington, California, Arizona, Texas, Florida, Georgia, Massachusetts, and New York, to mention a few.

Jac's main reason for accompanying Lon on this trip is to film the venture. Jac who is a photographer, bike number two will have facilities to carry his camera for special scenes.

As of present, money seems to be the biggest problem the two young men are having. They need monetary help for food and gasoline along the way. If any one is interested, contact Durham at 532-1132.

State sets deer hunting dates

Eighty-seven counties will be open to 55,000 Illinois hunters for the 1972 shotgun deer season in Illinois. All 102 counties will be open to those hunters wishing to take deer with bows.

"We have opened three new counties for shotgun hunters this year," said Henry N. Barkhausen, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation. "The newly opened counties are Christian, Moultrie and Piatt. Each will allow up to 200 hunters during the six-day split season."

Shotgun dates will be Nov. 17, 18 and 19, and Dec. 8, 9, and 10. The bow season runs from Oct. 1 through Nov. 12, Nov. 20 through Dec. 3, and Dec. 11 through Dec. 31 in counties open for shotgun hunters. All other counties will be open Oct. 1 through Dec. 31.

The open counties and permits available for the shotgun season are:

ORLAND PARK — The Orland Ladies softball team finished their season last week beating Lincoln Estates and tying Frankfort. Last Monday was a long affair between Orland and Frankfort that was called tied 6-6 because of darkness. The Orland Ladies battling back the whole game tied it in the last inning but just couldn't pull it out. Three days later the Orland Ladies were at it again romping over Lincoln States 16-8 and ending their season on a good note.

The Orland Ladies boasted a 5-4 record for the season.

The Orland Ladies softball team will be looking for more teams to play for next season so they can put together a league called the South Suburban Ladies Softball league. If interested in joining this league please contact Mary Aviole at 349-0742.

TINLEY PARK — The St. Michaels Wildcats of Orland Park now consist of three football teams. The first is the varsity for boys in seventh or eighth grade between the weights of 110 and 170 pounds, the second called the junior varsity for smaller boys and the last for beginners, the Widgets. There are roughly 120 boys in the whole program that will make the three teams this year.

But according to head coach Bob Price they only have 25 boys on the varsity and are looking for more football players. All three of the football teams from St. Michaels have been practicing for two weeks, but if there are any boys interested for playing for the Wildcats contact Bob Price at 448-6454. All Saint Michaels practices are held at 151st Street on route 45 from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m.

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest Baseball Association will hold registration for 1973, Saturday, Sept. 23, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.; at United Methodist Church, 159th Street and Long Ave.

All boys between the ages of 8-16 can register for the program. New registrants must bring birth certificates. Registration for one boy is $15, and two or more boys $25.

TINLEY PARK — Thirty-one boys and girls from the Tinley Park Mental Health Center were treated to golf and ice cream by the Tinley Park Jaycees and Mrs. Jaycees Aug. 21.

Project chairman Fred Abendroth arranged this month's outing to Packy Walsh's Miniature Golf Course on 159th street.

After the golfing the kids were treated to chocolate and vanilla ice cream at the Dairy Palace in Tinley Park.

This program was one adventure for the kid's in a year long project. Each month they experience a new outing with the Jaycees and Mrs. Jaycees. September's outing will be a three hour visit to the Tinley Park Fall Festival on Sat. Sept. 2nd. The kids have been promised a great time for all by the Jaycees, Mrs. Jaycees and Fall Festival Committee.

Athletic association sponsors golf outing

GINGERWOOD — On Sunday, Aug. 27th, the Gingerwood Athletic Association sponsored a golf outing at Cog Hill golf course. Many awards were won by the large number of people who participated. The low scratch score of 84 won Fred Flener a trophy.

The Peoria system of scoring was used for the rest of the awards except one. Dick Curry won a trophy with his low Peoria score of 68. Jim Haugh won a badminton set with a 71. Flener also won a garden hose with a 73. Jack Otto and Ken Schissler both won a box of golf balls with 75's.

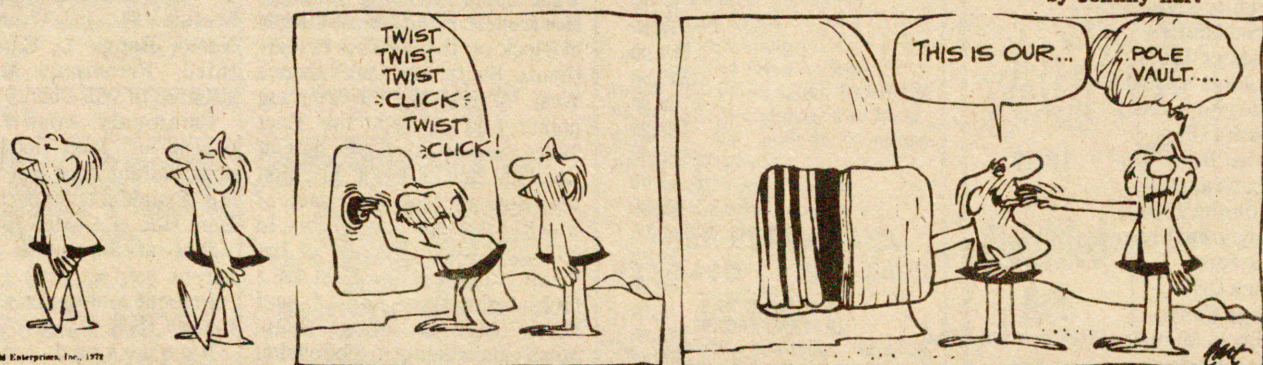

Bob McMannus and Rich Riley also won golf balls with 77's, as did Max Sismosky with a 78. Tom McCoy took home a border fence and Donna Ertl won an Evergreen plant with 79's. With an 80 Jerry Schissler won a box of golf accessories. Harry Johnson won some baggies and Pat Crosson a bag of tees with 83's.

Jim Musselman got a towel with an 85 and Gean Foley took home some ball markers with his 86. Wes Arrasmith has a case of beer for coming the closest to the pin on the first shot at the third hole. But the biggest award of the day went to Don Burns for the highest scratch score.

For this dubious distinction he is now the proud possessor of a genuine broken umbrella. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves as they kidded each other about their shooting. The only casualty of the day was Donna Ertl who was stung by a bee.

Fall Festival opens

TINLEY PARK — Plans for the 26th annual Fall Festival in Tinley Park are in final stages. The celebration takes place over the Labor Day week-end, from Sept. 1-4. The carnival will be open Friday 7-11:30 p.m., Sun. 2-11:30, Mon. 2-11:30. Remember the special discount for Sunday from 2-5 p.m. There will be loads of rides and games as well as a huge red and white display tent, filled to capacity.

Booths in the tent will be occupied by the "Spirit of Chicago", Bremen Bank, Evon's Sport and Trophy, Village Evergreen Nursery, Ye Olde Buggy Wheel Antiques, Citizens for Walker, Citizens for Rayson, Bestlines, Fashion

Wagon of Minnesota, Bettenhausen Motor Sales, Ornamental Iron Works, Knights of Columbus, Jaycees, Horoscope Reading, Musicville of Tinley Park, a religious group, Mode of Transportation, Love Tress Wig Company, Kitch N Bath, Ken's Heating and Air Conditioning.

There will also be a food booth at the festival with sandwiches, drinks, and snacks available.

This annual Labor Day celebration is once again focused on community cooperation and participation. It is there for community enjoyment and is dependent upon community involvement and participation to make it a success.

A successful carnival will make available funds for community needs as in previous years. The Tinley Park Fall Festival Association represents many local organizations whose delegates and alternates form the body of the association. These delegates donate their time and energies in volunteer work to make the festival a success. These same people are also involved in determining the areas where donations will do the most good.

Together with the Tinley Park Athletic Association, the Fall Festival Association has put between $125-$150 thousand dollars back into community service through various donations. They have purchased uniforms and equipment for the baseball and football teams, a copying machine and 8mm films among other equipment for the library, uniforms for the Central High School band, robes for the DeMolay, an exercise machine for the high school, tents and other equipment for the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, a tot lot in Tinley Terrace, a generous contribution to the fieldhouse building fund, and donations to the police and fire departments.

Groups or individuals interested in the group's projects are welcome to submit their names to the delegate body for consideration, or call Ed Howlett 532-1155 or Bob Walters 532-1675.

With the emphasis on voting this year, people will, hopefully flock to the polls. Many people are not registered, however, because of the location of the registration office. Now, no more excuses. With this Bremen Township mobile unit, registering is just a wheel away.

Bulletin board accents positive

MOKENA — A special bulletin board, chronicling the activities of Mokena youth in clippings or photographs, has been set up at the Mokena Community Public Library.

A caption above the board says: "Mokena's Youth Makes Good Reading."

According to Mrs. Sheila Shunko, publicity chairman for the library, everyone in the community is invited to share in the undertaking by bringing in matter for display on the board.

At present the board centers around a poster of the play, "Godspell," which is booked for the Studebaker Theater in Chicago, starting Sept. 19. In the cast is Karla DeVito, a graduate of the Mokena grade and Lincoln-Way High school.

"The library is proud to report the activities of the youth of this community," said Mrs. Shunko. "Please help us fill in the remainder of the bulletin board by contributing to it. Too often the small, but important, activities go unnoticed."

Village growth taxes facilities

TINLEY PARK — With the possibility of an expanding community additional police, fire and civil defense facilities will be needed for the village.

Police chief Kenneth O'Brien anticipating the growth of the community has already made it known to the village that he would like to have a central police headquarters on the Tinley Park Hospital grounds.

The new headquarters would service the expanding needs of the village for police service. At present Tinley Park police have only minimal facilities to house prisoners, and keeping a prisoner overnight usually entails a "hamburger breakfast" for the prisoner.

Village trustee Pat Rea has said that there is a possibility of a police station being located near the present village park district offices at 16801 S. 80th Avenue, to meet what one of the village trustees called, "The real population shift of the village."

The civil defense department already has land on hospital grounds, and future plans call for the CD to occupy a section of the basement of the new village hall, once it is completed. The basement would also be an auxiliary office for the mayor, and provide the necessary facilities and space for the village to operate in a major disaster.

Civil defense officials are working in cooperation with the local Veterans of Foreign Wars group to use some of the planned VFW building at 171st street and Harlem Avenue for CD facilities.

The village fire department is studying the possibility of locating a station near 183rd street and 80th avenue where it would service the planned commercial and industrial development in the area.

Showers wash area

Heavy rains swept the New Lenox, Frankfort, Mokena area last Friday night and while there is no official record kept there for precipitation residents with rain gauges of their own reported readings ranging from three and a half to four and half inches of rain between 5 and 11 p.m.

Joliet was even harder hit. That community was whipped by heavy rains in the afternoon and again Friday night with a reported accumulation of seven inches, which is said to be a record.

Large amounts of precipitation in July and August in this region are unusual, according to the records, but this year has been an exception.

With the ground already soggy from recent rains the torrential downpour Friday caused flooding in many sections. Many homeowners reported flooded basements. Parking lots and roads became lakes and rivers, and motorists caught out in the storm Friday night found it almost as hazardous to find a place where they could pull off as it was to continue their journeys. There were high winds and considerable lightning but no damage was reported in the immediate area.

Firemen move quickly

FRANKFORT SQUARE — The Frankfort Volunteer Fire Department quickly extinguished a blaze Tuesday morning in a condominium unit that could have been disastrous had it spread.

As it was the fire was confined to the utility room and kitchen of the unit owned by Sylvester Drioulette, 222A Garland Court. No one was at home when the fire broke out. Neighbors turned in the alarm.

The building is of frame construction as are neighboring buildings, so firemen are credited with preventing the spread of the fire.

According to Lieutenant Donald Fullerton who was in charge of the fire crews the blaze apparently started in the utility room but the cause has not been determined. The alarm came in at 7:30 a.m., and the fire was under control 7:40 a.m., but it was 9:30 a.m. before the last unit was withdrawn.

Mokena firemen responded to the call from Frankfort, and took a smoke ejector to the scene. There was some smoke damage in the remainder of the unit.

One of the owners of the other three units in the building said there was smoke odor in her place. New Lenox fire department filled in for Mokena.

OK Contract

TINLEY PARK — Supt. John Bannes informed District Board of Education Thursday, Aug. 24 that the school district is now No. 15 on the state's list pending an approved bond issue for an interest free loan.

The board reviewed in a 90-minute executive session the teacher's contract for the advancing school year and then approved the contract during the reconvened board meeting.

An increase on the first step from $7,900 to $8,100 was given for those teachers with a bachelor's degree, with a $12,350 top at the 16th step.

Those teachers with a master's degree were increased on the first step from $8,400 to $8,800 to $13,050 on the 16th step. Substitutes will receive increased salaries from $25.00 to $27.50 a day.

Complaints were voiced concerning the split schedules for students. The complaints were individual problems; one parent, Mrs. Elaine Sanders, disliked having her child walking at a late hour from school.

Mrs. Joyce Hedges wanted walks to be installed along 88th Avenue in Orland Park for the children. Supt. Bannes explained that because the county is not in favor of this idea that citizens should request a better shoulder be constructed on the road.

Enrollment for the fall is 1,691, an increase of 87 students. Bannes said that he expects enrollment to be 1,800 by October and 2,000 by January.

According to Board Member Herbert Walker, classes would have averaged 39 students per classroom, but with the double shift, the average class will be approximately 25 students.

Public hearing for the tentative budget will be Thursday, Sept. 14. Adoption for the budget will be at the next meeting.

Language Arts teacher Lorraine Durkin was hired for the Kirby School on the first step schedule.

A total of $24,912.01 in bills was approved at the meeting.

Announce bus routes

TINLEY PARK — Bus routes for students attending Community Consolidated School District 146 were announced by Dr. Robert Procunier, superintendent.

Bus routes for Walter F. Mayors agree on lines

By Gertrude Gallagher

ORLAND PARK — Cooperation is still the melody played while talks progress between the heads of the villages of Orland Park, Tinley Park and Oak Forest.

In a recent meeting between Mayors Melvin Doogan of Orland, John Dunne of Tinley and Bernard Kelly of Oak Forest tentative agreements were reached between Orland and Oak Forest on boundary lines.

Under the agreement Orland would not seek to extend its eastern boundary beyond the Voss property from 151st to 159th Streets. Ted Voss, president of Catalina Builders, owns 95 acres on the east side of Harlem Avenue north of 159th Street. The property is now zoned M-1 industry and C-commercial.

Although the Voss property is annexed to Orland several parcels of land in the tract considered in the agreement are not now in Orland.

Doogan said the intent is to end 151st Street east from Harlem to Oak Park Avenue. Realtor Ted Allen has already approached the Orland Planning Commission with a land use plan for developing the land just south of the Forest Preserve on the east side of Harlem. Allen has indicated a willingness to dedicate some of his land for such a street.

Oak Forest, which is planning to buy Chicago water, would welcome the line of demarcation. It could thus better plan on the size of the sewer and water mains to bring to its boundaries.

Doogan said the advantage to Orland would be, "More for bargaining purposes. I believe it's good for the community." He added Orland might wish to call on Oak Forest at some time for water or sewer assistance. Trustees said Orland could not service beyond the Voss property anyway.

When Trustee Jon Anderson questioned the irrevocability of Orland agreeing to "never" extending beyond the proposed line Village Attorney Raymond Pieper pointed out the board's approval of the concept was not to be "construed as a firm agreement."

Talks are continuing among the village officials and further agreements on Village boundaries, especially between Orland and Tinley, and other mutual interests are expected. Doogan said when the discussions are complete the finished plan will be presented to the Orland Planning Commission.

Work set for crossing

TINLEY PARK — J.B. Buffalo, vice president-operations vice chairman of the board and maintenance for the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific Railroad has responded to a letter written by state representative Lynn Brenne.

Brenne had written the railroad inquiring about the work the railroad has planned for the Tinley Park station area, and about the speed of trains going through the village.

In his reply to Brenne Buffalo said that a check of the Tinley Park area found the roadbed, and track in good operating condition, but the railroad will do some reconditioning work at the crossing, including the improving of drainage just east of the crossing. Work on the crossing will also include putting additional ballast and asphalt work on the crossing itself.

The work is scheduled as soon as the railroads work schedule allows, according to Buffalo. The letter also comments on the speed of trains by saying that most of the trains through Tinley Park are in the suburban service system and stop at the Tinley Station. The trains have a maximum speed limitation of 50 mph, which is relatively slow for main line operations according to Buffalo.
